

The Effects and Outcomes of Erasmus+ Youth 2021/2022 in Estonia

	youth projects	youth workers' projects
female	60%	65%
male	33%	31%
other	7%	5%

18% youth project
32% youth workers' project
participants belong to a minority group

43% youth ning 73% youth workers' project participants have higher education

Over 80%
youth project participants improved

ability to get along with people who have a different cultural background

ability to reflect and think critically ability to communicate with people who speak another language

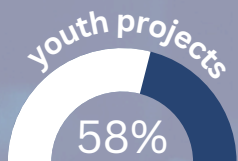

ability to negotiate joint solutions when there are different viewpoints

data source: RAY MON survey data 2021/2022

Motivation for participating

% of respondents

participants perceive the project's impact on their organisation/network

44%
49%

in youth projects

in youth workers' projects

health problems YP 28%, YWP 25%

living in a remote area YP 27%, YWP 19%

not having enough money YP 54%, YWP 53%

family ties and/or relationships YP 24%, YWP 25%

social background YP 19%, YWP 29%

participants with fewer opportunities

Effects on local communities

The local community has shown interest to support similar activities in the future

The local community appreciated the intercultural dimension of the project

% project team members "agree"/
"agree strongly"

42% youth projects
41% youth workers' projects

participants stand up for their rights more than before the project

58% youth projects
40% youth workers' projects

participants feel project made them more sensitive to environmental issues

36% youth projects
35% youth workers' projects

participants are better able to take care of their digital well-being

61% youth projects
45% youth workers' projects

participants engage in civil society more than before the project

Satisfaction with the project

Youth projects

Youth workers' projects

Project teams

% respondents who rated their experience on a scale 1-5 with "5" emoji - 😊

Over 60% project team members improved knowledge about

- project management
- young people's realities
- organisational learning and development
- non-formal learning
- youth work

Youth workers' projects' perceived effects on skills and attitudes

I have become more aware of which competences I want to develop further 87%

I have learned more about strengthening youth-led youth work 82%

I have learned more about fostering non-formal learning in youth work 85%

I am better able to deal with ambiguity and tensions in my youth work 81%

I am better able to strengthen international dimensions in my youth work 83%

My participation in the activity already had an impact on my youth work 81%

I am better able to strengthen diversity in my youth work 82%

My networks have extended meaningfully 81%

	invitations sent*	total responses*	after data cleaning
youth projects	849	221	277
youth workers' projects	602	212	223
project teams	380	160	152

*participants in projects funded by Estonian NA
 participants in projects funded by Estonian NA and participants from Estonia